

Orthodontic & Surgical Management of Cleft Lip & Palate Patients

Teachers	Programs	Time	Date
Dr. Zahra Najirad	Orthodontic management of cleft lip & palate patients	16:30-17:00	Wednesday 2010/05/19
	Practical working on patients records	17:00-17:30
Dr. Abolfazl Ghorbani	Surgical management of cleft lip & palate patients	17:30-18:00
	Group discussion	18:00-18:30
	Important keys in treatment of cleft lip & palate patients	18:30-18:45

From birth to adulthood: multidisciplinary treatment for cleft lip and palate patients

Ghorbani Abolfazl¹, Najirad, Zahra², Hurmerinta Kirsti³, Heliövaraa Arja⁴
 1. Oral & Maxillofacial post graduate student, Shahid Beheshti Medical Science University, 2. Orthodontist, Shahed University, Dental School, 3. Orthodontist, cleft palate and craniofacial center, Helsinki 4. Orthodontist, cleft palate and craniofacial center, Helsinki

Introduction:

Eurocleft consensus Oslo cleft consensus Timing and documentation bone graft timing aims of alveolar bone graft the surgery for bone grafting maxillary hypodontia, deficiency cleft stigma in profile orthognathic vs. orthodontic treatment surgical orthodontic treatment need for osteotomy surgical techniques combined with lefort I maxillary distraction osteogenesis timing of distraction treatment indications for early maxillary osteotomy planning of surgery orthodontic treatment after osteotomy

Conclusions:

cleft osteotomy and cleft orthodontics is to eliminate cleft stigma cleft treatment needs multidisciplinary team work centralized cleft treatment-experienced team, planned treatment protocol

Keyword:

surgery, osteotomy, orthodontics, cleft stigma, team work, lefort